THE RAYEN SCHOOL

"All of Rayen's a Stage"

And all the students in it merely players
They have their exits and their entrances
And each one in his time plays many parts
His acts being four stages,

Lowly freshmen, wise-fool sophomores,
Conceited juniors and mighty seniors"

During the past year, Rayen has seen the retirement of several teachers, some of whom had been here for many years. Miss Helen Pond, who taught English at Rayen since 1930, is now living in Cleveland with her sister. Mr. Walter A. Simpson, after teaching wood shop here since 1929, has moved to the warm Florida sunshine.

Mrs. Hilda Stiffler, former teacher, and cafeteria manager for the past thirty-four years, is traveling with her husband around the United States by automobile.

Miss Louise Boynton retired last June but now teaches at Youngstown University. She had been at Rayen for many years.

Among those who have withdrawn from the faculty are, Mrs. Carol Marshall, who is now teaching in Indiana, and Mr. John F. Busch who is still conducting and teaching band at Hayes Junior High School.

Thespian Officers

Thespian officers: Phyllis Haines, historian; J. Schwartz, president; M. O'Neill, secretary; R. Brandt, vice-president; R. Schmutz, treasurer.

The officers of Troupe 479 of the National Thespians Society for the year 1958-59 included Judy Schwartz, president; Nicki Brandt, vice-president; Marlene O'Neill, secretary; Reid Schmutz, treasurer; and Phyllis Haines, historian.

In the fall "A Roomful of Roses" was presented with Katie Birch, Judy Deimel and Reid Schmutz taking top honors. This was followed by patriotic choral reading, "The Voice of America," with Alex Papagan taking the role of the seer.

Inasmuch as this was the thirtieth anniversary of the National Thespian Society, we held a formal initiation to which the parents of the members and the initiates were invited. At this initiation we installed Mr. Andrew M. Lindsay as an honorary member.

Among the fourteen boys and girls initiated into the Rayen Thespian Troupe were seniors Betty Randell, Malka Greenberger, Barbara Lipton and Sandra Tracey. Juniors who earned their points were Jean Love, Nancy Gourley, and Ron White. Pete Patrone, Paul Stetts, Tina Bucheit, Pam Wollison, Wally Hollander, Stanley Label and Wayne Leebaw were the sophomores who made the grade.

The play chosen for production in the spring was "The Thread That Runs So True" by Jesse Stuart.

"They did down the stage with tears
Their clowns did make those laugh
Whose lungs were tickled o' the sere." (Hamlet)

"Act well your part"

Dramatic Club

Seated: E. Linder,A. Coombs, M. O'Neill, J. Schwartz, N. Brandt; row two: M. Hume, C. Heames, J. Landau, B. Safier, S. Lackey, P. Laskin; row three: H. Brandt, M. McCutcheon, M. Cragel, S. Billet, M. Keyes, Miss Lucill Lee; row four: D. Noll, P. Grier, C. Murphy, G. Davison, P. Stetts.

Officers: seated: J. Schwartz, E. Linder, A. Coombs; standing: N. Brandt, M. O'Neill.

This year the Dramatics Club was run a bit differently. Under the supervision of Miss Lucille Lee and a few Thespians, the twenty-five members of this club met to learn and practice the techniques of acting.

Throughout the year, several one-act plays were given in arena style, to which different home-rooms were invited.

The Dramatics Club members also helped the Thespians put on "The Voice of America" program in February.

The Thespian committee directing the club activities includes: Nicki Brandt, Alice Coombs, Elise Linder, Marlene O'Neil and Judy Schwartz.

"The French ambassador upon that instant.
Craved audience: and the hour I think is come
To give him audience." (Henry V)

Le Cercle Francais

Row one: S. Leebaw, J. Levy, L. Lobe, P. Passell, C. D'Amico, S. Sandler, C. Theodore, N. Frantz, M. Guarnieri; row two: J. Schwartz, C. Paranzine, M. Greenberger, C. Krauss, D. Brown, J. Birch, J. Ipp.

Once again Le Cercle Francais, Senior French Club, held their monthly meeting in a member's home. French was the language of the evening beginning with the business meeting and being carried right through the entertainment and the final "bon soir"—good night.

The Christmas meeting was at the home of Josephine Robinson, whose parents acted as hosts. Other meetings were held at the homes of Barbara Rifkin, Sue Sandler, Jane Ipp, Greta Davidson and Ernie Wilkoff.

Committees usually serve the refreshments. Among the programs have been original plays, dramatizations of classroom stories, and contests using French proverbs and sayings.

Working along with advisors, Miss Catherine Wary and Miss Florence Turowski, are this year's fine team of officers: Josephine Robinson, president; Greta Davidson, vice-president; Mark Tessler, treasurer; and Anita Thornton, secretary. Assistant treasurers are Marcia Gurss and Diane Orze.

This year's members established a French commencement award of $25 to be given annually to the outstanding advanced French student.

Row one: H. Bowers, B. McCreary, S. English, J. Lomax, A. Averhart, L. A. Booker; row two: J. McCreary, B. Randell, S. Kornstein, A. Tanowitz, P. Lieberman, M. Broida; row three: R. Daniels, J. Le Petit Cercle Francais Officers

Officers: row one: E. Carrozzino, J. Solomon, B. Chudakoff, L. Bolton; row two: J. Hogg, M. Henderson, Miss C. Wary.

Members of Le Cercle Francais enjoyed skits, singing and social functions after school each month under the direction of Miss Catherine Wary and Miss Florence Turowski.

The first skit presented was written by a sophomore, Peggy Henderson. Members of Le Cercle Francais also presented an entertaining skit about a dance. There were many quizzes on geography and history.

Meetings were held bimonthly in the cafeteria. Refreshments were planned and served by different members each time. French was used during the business meeting and French songs were sung at the close of each meeting.

"The language I have learn'd these several years,
Now must I forego." (Richard II)

German Club

Growth in number and activity has steadily been achieved by the German Club. Both first and second year students participate in its activities.

Meetings of the group included one in December when first year students were entertained by a skit put on by the second year students. Then in February, the program centered around great German cities. At the April meeting the second year students were entertained by the first year students.

Under the capable leadership of Miss Eleanor Beers, the group has completed another successful year. Officers for the year were Bill Hauser, president; Elise Linder, vice-president; Deena Schlosser, secretary; and Dave Williams, treasurer.

Row one: M. L. Dickens, J. Hogan, B. Freed, M. Levick, B. DeAngelo, M. Broenelle; row two: P. Henkin, J. Love, A. Coombs, G. Benson, Y. Ottenberg, M. Scott, D. Bassin, J. Goldstein; row three: J. Latin Club Officers

Sitting: Judy Hubbard, Sandra Kornstein, Betty Randell, Jim Manchester, Pam Wollison; standing: Miss Lucille Lee, Miss Catherine Wary.

Latin Club, under the capable supervision of Miss Katheryn Wary and Miss Lucille Lee, enjoyed its forty-fifth year of activity. Opening the season, Jackie Dellaria gave a detailed talk illustrated with slides on the World's Fair in Brussels.

Before Christmas they conducted a successful bake sale. At their annual Christmas party several small plays were given and Latin bingo was played. Refreshments were served and Christmas songs were sung in Latin.

Latin Club members and freshman Latin students went by Greyhound bus to the Buhl Planetarium in Pittsburgh for the Latin Exhibition and the Sky Show on February 22.

Latin Week was celebrated from April 6 through April 12. During this week, the organized Latin Clubs in the city sponsored a speaker at Princeton Junior High School.

This year's officers were: Betty Randell, president; Jim Manchester, vice-president; Judy Hubbard, secretary; Pam Wollison, treasurer. Senators were: Diane Bassin, Nancy Kohan, Sandra Kornstein, Stanley Label, Wayne Leebaw, Derek Noll, Sue Richstone, Judy Schwartz and Paul Stetts.

Spanish Club Revives

Spanish Club Officers

Sitting: Mike Morelli, vice-president; Karen Pevow, secretary; Mr. N. Cippollone, advisor. Standing: Nancy Naples, treasurer; Missy McCutcheon, historian. Not in picture: Mike Cappola, president.

Row one: G. Davidson, J. Diemal, M. McCarron; row two: E. Allen, M. Bender, L. Dominic, R. Dominic; row three: N. Dominic, S. DiFiore, R. Jones, D. Roberts, R. Spokane, F. Green; row four: M. Bledsoe, R. Conti, B. Jamison, J. Bertilacci, J. Sorvillo, G. Wrench, F. Thomas.

Spanish Club has been inactive for a number of years, but recently was brought back into existence by Mr. Nicholas Cipollone, advisor.

One of the main purposes of the Spanish Club is to create more interest and desire in the further use of Spanish. The following purposes are in no way less important, namely: (1) to give a deeper insight into Spanish culture and heritage (2) to practice parliamentary procedure (3) to afford an opportunity for students of the various Spanish classes to become better acquainted with one another (4) to offer supplementary reading material such as dialogues, short stories, and anecdotes.

A student must have and maintain at least a "C" average in Spanish in order to be a member in good standing. A highlight of the activities of the club this year was a Spanish type Christmas party. The new idea of carrying a membership card was also introduced.

Officers for 1958-59 were Mike Coppola, president; Mike Morelli, vice-president; Karen Pevow, secretary; Nancy Naples, treasurer; Missy McCutcheon, historian.

"They have pitched a toil; I am toiling in a pitch." (Love's Labor Lost)

Junior Achievement

The Junior Achievement Association of Youngstown puts forth great effort in trying to prepare young men and women for their place in the business world of tomorrow. The association is made up of various miniature companies, owned and operated by the members and stockholders. These various companies consist of students from different schools. Among them is Rayen who boasts of thirty-nine students.

Many seniors in the association have won numerous awards and have received special recognition. They are: Anita Thornton, Alexander Papagan, Mark Kaufman, Nancy Hutt, Joanne McCreary, Jean Dennis, Joe Hughes, Jo Ann Phillips and Robert Berkowitz. Anita Thornton is secretary of the City JA.

Others who do their share in selling stocks and in discussing new charters and leases are: Mary Short, Marva Little, Kay Black, Joe Ferenchak, Barbara McCreary and Karen Pevow. One of the units which is unusual is the TV-production company which was formed this year at WFMJ-TV stations. Pupils write their own script, cast, produce and direct.

Row one: M. Short, N. Rothwell, J. Humphries, M. Little, K. Black, H. Stollner; row two: M. Milliron, A. Thornton, A. Papagan, J. Ferenchak, M. Kaufman, N. Hutt, J. McCreary, J. Dennis; row three: B. National Forensic League

For years the Rayen chapter of the National Forensic League has gained distinction as being one of the leading chapters in the state, and this year has proved to be no exception.

To mention all of their achievements would be practically impossible. During travels to such places throughout Ohio as Columbus, Euclid, Stowe, Cleveland, Niles, Cuyahoga Falls, Struthers, Boardman and several Youngstown schools, N.F.L. members have comprised an impressive record consisting of gaining permanent possession of the Rayen Rotary Debate trophy, winning the District Individual Events trophy, and having the distinction of Speaker of the House at Student Congress. This does not include the numerous personal trophies won by individual members.

Of course, mention of N. F. L.'s accomplishments would not be complete without referring to its advisors, Mr. David Howland and his assistant, Mr. Robert Hassey.

Membership in the Rayen chapter of the National Forensic League Trophy Club is an honor well worthy of praise, for it is accomplished only after endless hard work, preparation and determination. The requirements for membership in Trophy Club serve as evidence of this. To qualify one must take first place in a tournament, win three consecutive debates, or qualify for district or state finals.

Officers

Officers: K. Pevow, city treasurer-elect; Miss Geneva Smith, M. Fossesca, president; C. D'Amico, retiring city treasurer.

One Tuesday out of every month, the Future Nurses meet at the Stambaugh Nurses home of South Side Hospital. The club consists of students from all of the public schools in Youngstown.

Rayen officers in the Future Nurses include Carol D'Amico, treasurer; and Marlene Fossesca, school representative. Miss Geneva Smith, advisor, directs the activities of the group.

Previously the Nurses Club toured the South Side Hospital, the student nurses acting as guides and explaining various rooms in the hospital for the students.

In December, they gave a Christmas party and exchanged gifts among themselves. At another meeting there was a speaker from Woodside Receiving Hospital. At another they viewed a movie on operations.

Mrs. Gilda Millan, a registered nurse, is director of Future Nurses at the Stambaugh Nursing home.

Future Teachers Officers

A. Wine, secretary; D. Schlosser, president; J. Schwartz, treasurer; J. Love, vice-president; J. Weamer, advisor.

The Frank W. Tear Future Teachers Club has an enrollment of fifty-one members. Future Teachers of America is a service club, and its members try to earn two hundred service points in order to win an F. T. A. pin.

They work for these points by acting as office assistants, taking charge of classes in the elementary and high schools and assisting the teachers during P. T. A. meetings.

Janie Ipp, Sue Sandler and Judy Schwartz assisted with student teaching at Harding School. Arlene Wine tutored a Braille class student. Galen Gourley and June Fiscus represented Rayen at the Family Life Institute. Delta Kappa Gamma Society entertained a group of senior Future Teachers at their annual recruitment day at Butler Art Institute.

Officers are Deena Schlosser, president; Jean Love, vice-president; Arlene Wine, secretary; Judy Schwartz, treasurer; and Galen Gourley, historian. Miss June Weamer is the advisor of the club.

Several seniors have applied for teaching scholarships in college during their senior year.

Officers

C. Paranzine, vice-president; J. Lotarski, president; K. Black, secretary; B. Franklin, treasurer.

G. A. A. proclaimed juniors as the winners of the annual class championship for basketball with Beverly Carl as its captain. Anna Marie Lucaric lead her orange team in a varsity basketball tourney to victory by trouncing the black team under the leadership of Carol Stewart.

Officers for the year were: Joanne Lotarski, president; Carol Paranzine, vice-president; Beverly Franklin, secretary; and Karen Black, treasurer.

Thus another chapter closes in the events of G. A. A.'s program as many await the 1960 season. Miss Patricia Sigler directs its activities.

500 Club Officers

In front: T. Castor, C. Paranzine, C. Smith, Miss Sigler.

Having achieved 500 points in Girls' Athletic Association, a girl is eligible for membership in 500 Club. Limited to a select twenty athletes, the organization has once again completed a successful year in athletics.

Headed by the officers Theresa Castor, president; Joanne Lotarski, vice-president; and Carolyn Smith, secretary-treasurer; the club participated in bowling, basketball, volleyball and softball tournaments.

Annual affairs consisted of the combination swim and dance party, and the May Banquet where various athletic awards were made to outstanding members of 500 Club.

Last year Phyllis O'Hara was awarded the "Athlete of the Year" trophy, and a trophy for having earned 2500 points. Letters went to Gloria Bursack and Phyllis O'Hara for earning 2000 points each.

Under the supervision of Miss Patricia Sigler, the 500 Club has kept up its high standards throughout the years.

Patterson, A. Averhart, B. Franklin, K. Black.

Yolaso Y-Teens rang up the curtain participating in the City-wide Touchdown Toddle. A "Cookie Shine" in November proved to be a financial success as well as a beautiful display of delicious goodies.

Local Braille students were very graciously honored at the annual Y-Teen Christmas Party. This party will always remain in the hearts of all the girls who planned the party.

The sale of school stationery was one of the successful projects the Y-Teens undertook. Then the Spring Formal was represented very well from Yolaso, a final celebration for Yolaso Y-Teens.

Under the leadership of Miss Geneva Smith, the Yolaso Y-Teens have reached many goals. Enjoying her guidance, we hope that she will continue to help future Yolaso groups.

Carol D'Amico was elected Miss Y-Teen for the city at the city-wide Y-Teen May formal.

Yolaso Y-Teens Officers

Seated: Terry Castor, secretary; Carol D'Amico, president; Carolyn Smith, vice-president; Miss Geneva Smith, advisor; standing: Pat Freeman, recording secretary; JoAnn Lotarski, treasurer.

Gimpers Y-Teens Officers

Sitting: Janice Poghen, vice-president; Patty Roberts, president; Mary Ann Stanley, secretary; Mrs. Barbara Kuhlins, advisor; Jackie Fossesca, Inter Club Council Rep.; Joanne Noday, meditations; Linda Lucanic, treasurer.

Boosting the morale of the football team, Gimpers Y-Teens sold orange and black shakers to the team rooters. Under the direction of Mrs. Kuhlins, they purchased and decorated a Christmas tree for the main corridor to add to the Yule spirit of the school.

Although the city Touchdown Toddle was postponed because of inclement weather, it was well attended by Gimpers at a later date. Also, they supported the Annual Spring Formal.

Their officers include Patty Roberts, president; Janice Poghen, vice-president; Marianne Stanley, secretary; Linda Lukanec, treasurer.

Although only four years old, Gimpers takes the lead in many Y-Teen activities, utilizing the energies of freshmen and sophomores.

Continuing their annual service to the school, the Home Room Council sponsored Open House for parents and friends during National Education Week and a tea honoring senior Honor Roll members in April.

Among the successful projects undertaken by the council to raise money were the Fifth Annual Variety Show supervised by Mr. Robert Hassey and the Annual Sales Tax Drive.

With the proceeds from these endeavors, the council purchased a tape-recorder and furnishings for a new student conference room.

The council also actively participated in the Family Life Institute at the YWCA and the Dress Right Campaign under the direction of Miss Marie Kryzan.

The Rayen Record has improved its appearance and readability by changing from news-print to book stock. Increase in printing costs made it necessary for the staff to arrange various money-making projects, such as dances and bake sales.

Headed by Monica Guarnieri, editor-in-chief, the staff published nine issues of the paper, staged the Fifth Annual Monarch Ball in the cafeteria after the Rayen-Boardman basketball game and a dance in the fall after the South game.

Page editors Janie Burke, Stanley Rosko, Bert Summers, Frances Lubonovic and Dave Dyer met twice a month to proof-read and make-up copy. Next year's Record will benefit from the return of the juniors who did this year's editing.

The Library Council is a service organization made up of girls who spend one period a day assisting the librarian.

The quiet-mannered "girl at the desk" does much more than take care of library permits, stamp due dates, and hand out books that are kept in reserve. When not busy with these duties, she is engaged in a great many other activities important to the welfare of the library. Among them are returning books to the shelves, keeping shelves in order, checking the condition of books, and helping to keep library records.

In addition to these services, Council members this year have helped to prepare for circulation more than two hundred new books and about one hundred and fifty books returned from the bindery.

Besides the members of the Council listed with the picture, the library is indebted to Beth Shifman for her help during the second semester.

A Cappella Closes Thirty Years

"The Lord Bless You and Keep You" is the wish the A Cappella extended to Mr. Waldemar Nischwitz on the thirtieth anniversary of his direction of A Cappella choir.

Among other accomplishments of the present A Cappella choir may be mentioned the Winter Concert when silhouettes were used for the first time. "Carol of the Drums" proved to be the favorite song with the audience both nights.

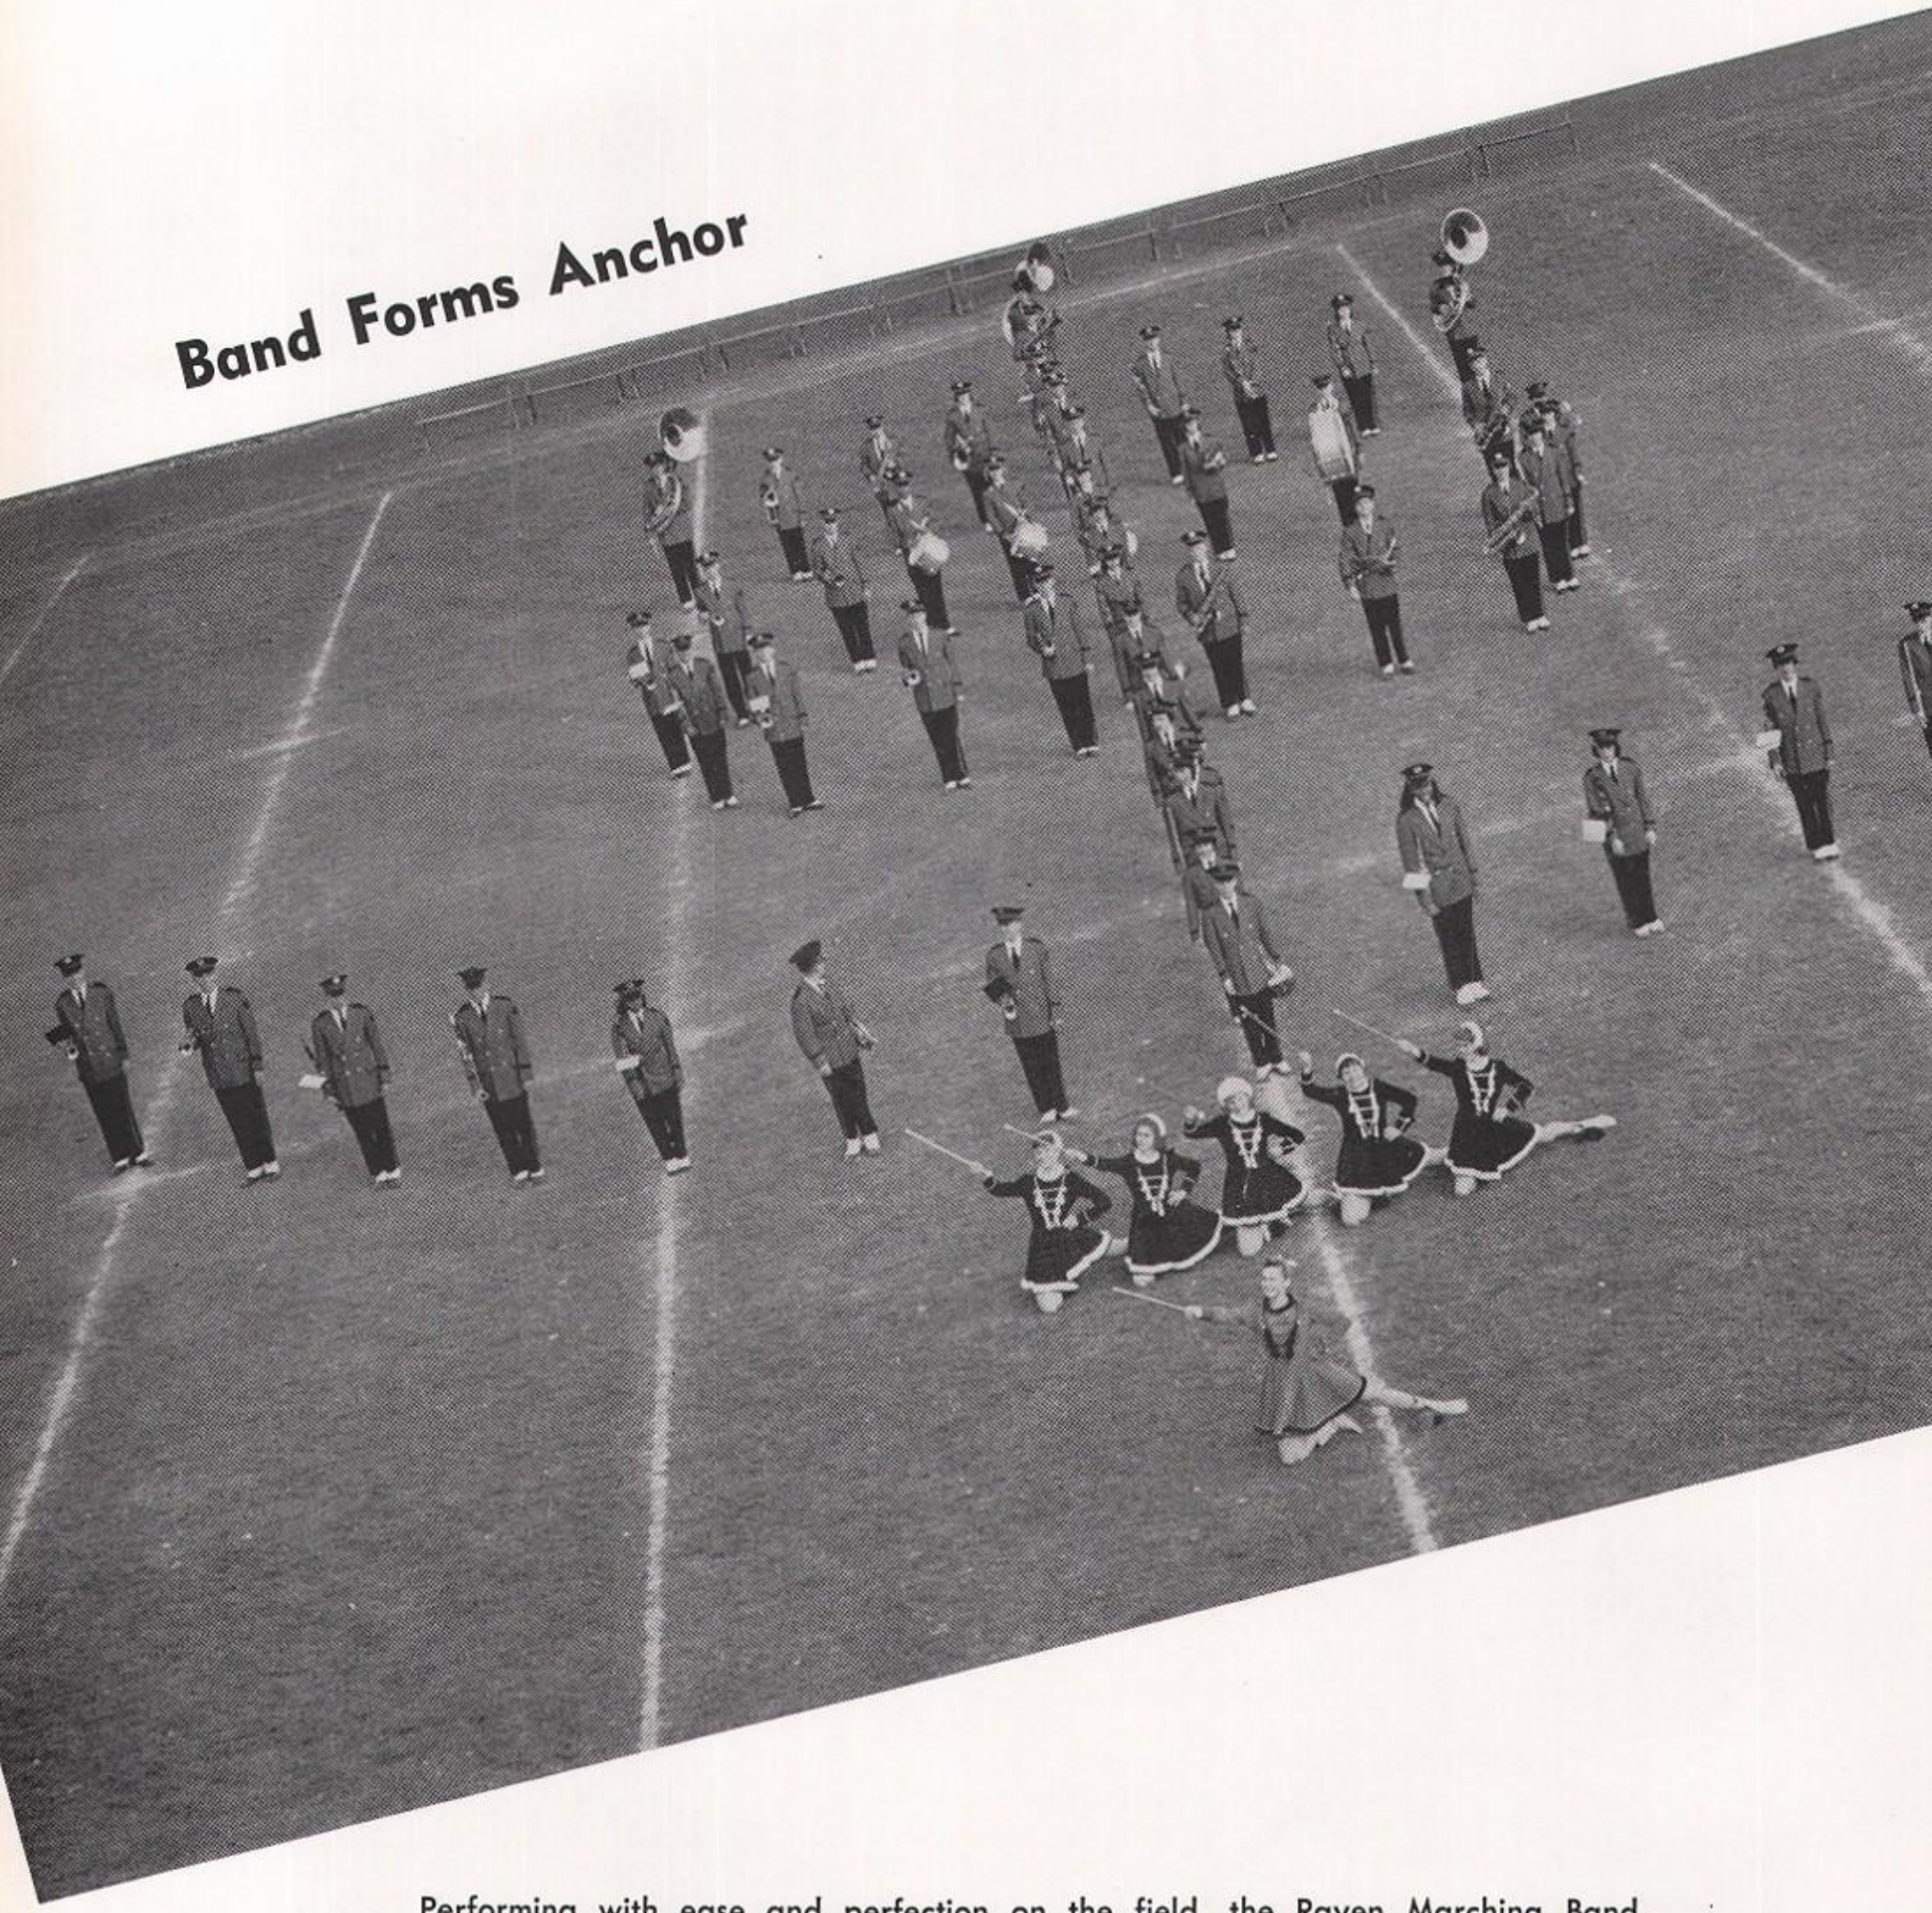
Band Forms Anchor



Performing with ease and perfection on the field, the Rayen Marching Band, under the leadership of their new director, Mr. Lewis L. Anderson, has successfully climaxed another year. It was ascertained that there was no competition for them in any of their performances.

The Marching Band, consisting of sixty-five members, also participated in various civic affairs. Those melodious tunes that were echoed through the halls prior to the Christmas vacation came from the Symphonic Band.

Their performance for assembly programs at Hayes and Rayen and at the annual Spring Concert was superb.

Concentrating on symphonic as well as light material, the orchestra showed growth and improvement. In the lighter vein, such pieces as "Laura" and "Temptation" have predominated while Handel's "Song of Jupiter" has excelled in the heavier one.

Their performance highlighted the spring Thespian play. As their final program of the year, they performed at graduation exercises. Although the orchestra is losing such fine members as Anita Thornton, Alex Papagan, Joe Ferenchak, Josephine Robinson and Arlene Wine, they hope next year will be just as successful.

The 1959 Rayen Tigers football team came up with an average season, led by senior lettermen, Lonzel Pruitt, Dom Vechiarelli, Joe Robinson, Frank Horvath, Pat Ungaro, Joe Saunders, Melvin Bledsoe and Casey Cousins.

This hardworking squad was ably coached by Head Coach Robbinette, Joe Horn, Ted Theodosoff and newcomer Robert Sapashe .

Posting wins over Chaney and North in City Series competition, the Tigers defeated East Liverpool and Mooney in out-of-league play. They tied their traditional rivals, South High and the rugged Struthers unit.

The Rayen School Varsity Basketball team has completed the 1959 season, tying for second place laurels in City Series play and advancing three games in the district tournament.

The team was led by the seven lettermen: Lonzel Pruitt, John Wolsonovich, Casey Cousin, Joe Robinson, Carl Jones, George Donlow and Paul Carlson. Through their efforts, along with those of coach "Pappy" Joachim, the team piled up a 15-5 record for the season.

The Tigers, after winning two games in the district tournament at South, were edged out by Chaney by a scant three points.

The team posted wins over North, South, East, Ursuline and Mooney in City Series play while dropping tilts to Wilson and Chaney. They also defeated such non-league teams as Struthers, Niles and East Palestine.

Some scores were:

Rayen 73	Ursuline 59
Rayen 67	South 58
Rayen 49	Wilson 51
Rayen 39	Chaney 62
Rayen 58	Salem 81

Last year the Rayen Tennis Team shone brilliantly, as in previous years, with Mr. Robert Klinko as coach.

Rayen again captured the Mahoning Valley Tennis Association crown, by having an undefeated season—defeating every team they played.

David Bloomberger and Kenneth Pickering were the delegates to the District Doubles Playoff in Columbus. Helping to boost the team's action were Bloomberger, Pickering, Dick Jones, Paul Heinzelman, Mark Tessler, Leslie Abramovitz and Harry Cohen.

"Rouse up thy youthful blood,
Be valiant, and play!" (King Richard II)

Golf Team

N. Solomon, D. Lucarell, Mr. Joachim, T. Terlesky, D. Norris.

With four lettermen returning to the 1959 golf team, a victorious season looms ahead for Rayen. These veterans are Normon Solomon, Dan Norris, Tom Terlesky, and Don Lucarell.

The Rayen Golf Team of 1958, coached by Mr. Charles Joachim, had a fairly impressive year. The team won 12 out of 14 matches during the year, and came in second to Ursuline in the City Series. The highlight of the season was their victory over 20 schools in the Yankee Run Tournament with a score of 320.

At the N.E.O. Tournament at Kent, Rayen was in a three-way tie for second place with Ursuline and Kent, with a score of 299. In the Sudden-Death play off, Rayen lost their chances of playing in the finals at Columbus.

The first day of school and there we were, the boys and girls of the class of 1962. Some tall, some short, some thin, and some not so thin—all sizes. We had "Butch" cuts, long bobs, short bobs, sloppy loafers, and the inevitable bobby socks and each of us a heart full of excitement at becoming a part of The Rayen School!

The Freshmen class proved its ability in Music when several were chosen for A Cappella; namely, Virginia Porter, Nicky Wolsonovich and John Mulholland. Besides, Bill Weber achieved the unusual honor of being accepted into Boy's Octet.

Those who have taken up the question, "Should the U. S. adopt the essential feature of the British System of Education" find the Debate Club exciting. Constantly

Those making the cheerleading squad are Judy Seiple and Barbara "Babs" Perkins. Among the majorettes are Phyllis "Cookie" Greco, Susie Stout and Jo Ann Davis.

In the marching band you see Bob Henkin, Pat Smith, and Marnie Thornton.

These, then, were the "small fry"—the freshmen who somehow didn't feel quite so lowly as their upper classmates sometimes made them out to be. We were determined to take our place in the activities and life of Rayen School at once. At the close of our first year at Rayen, we can point with pride to the zeal of our classmates.

LIBRARY SERVES AS STUDY

Producing The Rayen Annual takes the co-operative effort of several teachers and many pupils. Through the direction of Miss Florence Turowski, the work is channelled into several areas.

Advertising is supervised by Mr. Harold Johnson. His 1959 staff produced more revenue in fewer pages than ever.

Subscriptions are directed by Mr. John K. Russ and Mr. Lawrence Gilboy. Art is produced through the advanced classes of Mr. John J. Benninger.

Editing the annual copy is Miss Eugenia Sheehan and her typing staff after the editorial board decides on the contents, theme and make-up. Then all work is co-ordinated through the board and Miss Turowski into the final product, The Annual.

We need sympathy no more! Maybe we are betwixt and between, neither sophisticated like the upper classmen nor greenhorns like the freshmen! We have begun to pick up the confidence we lacked last year and we are gaining our equilibrium. Many of our number have buoyantly started the ascent to success.

Voices worthy of A Cappella are owned by a host of our classmates, such as Clyde Allen, Bob Hauser, Sylvia Shobar, Robert Reed, Sandra Nelson, Nancy Solomon, Leslie Marks, Patricia Coward and Chris Heames. An even greater distinction is conferred upon those of our number who have made Octet; those are Levester McCullem and Jim Manchester. Among those in the band are Ronnie Sergi, Nancy Thellman, Mark Bender and Peg Henderson.

BRAILLE BRIGHTENS WORLD

June, 1959, brings to a close The Youngstown Braille Class's five happy years within the walls of Rayen School. The understanding and co-operation of the three faculties and student bodies of Harding, Hayes, and Rayen have made the lives of the blind pupils, purposeful and worth-while.

The primary unit of the class is composed of one first grader, Martha Strohmyer, Howland; one second grader, Esther Lee Flickinger, of McDonald; four third graders, Jeffrey Capers, Hopedale; Diane McDevitt, Canfield; Donald Reisinger, Newton Falls; and Jean Warring, Ashtabula.

In the intermediate class there are four fourth graders: Kathy McGinniss, Negley; Donald Hardy, Windham; Lawrence Sova, Youngstown; and Jimmie Donnan, Youngstown. The fifth grade has two pupils; Barry Stirbens, Austintown; and Anthony Keras, Steubenville. Two seventh graders, John Seech, Youngstown; and Alan Gibson, spend their mornings in Hayes Junior High School, and one boy, Ronald Abrams, Salem, is finishing his school career this year. Although we lose but one student by graduation, the Braille Class is expecting five or six more students to join its ranks next year.

"But when they once attain the utmost rung;
They then unto the latter turn their backs
Look into the clouds scorning the base degrees
By which they did ascend." (Caesar)

Juniors Prepare for Last Act

LANGUAGE CLUBS

Active in French Club are Judy Solomon, president of the Petite Cercle, Peggy Davis and Barbara Landolt. In Spanish Club are Sandy DiFiore, Mike Cuppola and Mary McCarron. Adding to German Club progress is Paula Henkin, while Mary Jo Ligan, Barbara Carney, Lynn Berndt and Sue Fleisher work away in Latin Club.

Boosting the morale of the school and preparing for the co-captainship of the cheering squad are Monica Guarnieri and Karen Pevow. Future Teachers of America include Dick Yarmy and Georgie Mills.

Jo Anne Carter, Nancy Naples, Evie Carrozzino and Larry Flint are leaders in Home Room Council. Already five juniors have made Quill and Scroll. Karen Pevow is treasurer for the City Future Nurses.

Thus the junior class, already assuming leadership, will be well prepared to direct and inspire others when they take over the leading roles in the activities in 1960.

The Curtain Falls . . .

Senior Class History

"We will shine in 59" has been the motto and inspiration of the class of 1959. Throughout the year the "Fifty-niners" have demonstrated this by excelling in A Cappella, Junior Achievement, Sports and Thespians.

In sports, Frank "Snooky" Horvath earned unlimited fame as he rose to a position on the All-City Football Team, while Lonzel Pruitt was chosen a representative of the All-City second string. Outstanding in basketball were Carl Jones, Lonzel Pruitt, John Wolsonovich and Joe Robinson, who led Rayen in a victorious season. The football squad elected Jo Ann McCreary, Queen, to reign over their homecoming game.

Mark Tessler, Alex Papagan and Joe Ferenchak helped win the permanent Sweepstakes Trophy for Rayen.

Erwin Martin and Jonathan Towne were two high rating seniors who excelled in the field of track. Mike Pesa, Dan Norris and Norman Solomon helped to keep the golf team of top; Richard Jones and Mark Tessler did the same for tennis.

Encouraging the teams were cheerleaders Great Davidson, Barbara Lipton, Frances Lubonovic and Sue Sandler.

Head majorette for this season was Judi Ocker assisted by Missy McCutcheon.

Unholding the traditions of Rayen A Cappella were Dave Williams, Barbara Lipton, Elise Linder, Bill Hauser and Nancy Hutt. The Spring Concert was a thirty year tribute to Waldemar "Nisch" Nischwitz.

Active Thespians for the past year were Judy Schwartz, Marlene O'Neil, Sandra Kornstein, Renick Brandt and Katie Birch. "A Roomful of Roses" headed the productions for this year. Joe Ferenchak and Marcia Gurss made a trip to Purdue University for a National Thespian Conference.

A member of the fairer half of the graduating class stole all the honors as a representative to the NAJAC conference at the University of Indiana where she learned business organization. This distinction goes to Anita Thornton.

Deena Schlosser presided over the Senior Social Committee this year as they paved the way for a new tradition at Rayen. After every Winter Concert the Senior Class of that year will hold a party to welcome back the alumni. The first party proved to be very successful.

Carol D'Amico and Pat Passell were hard to beat in rubber soled shoes as

The list of names of those seniors who have aided Miss Turowski in her endless job of organizing the Record and Annual Staffs are much too long to name here,

And so the class motto has carried its members to success as they depart, they leave their challenge to every future class of Rayen.

Makes you feel pretty important, doesn't it? You've come through twelve rough years of books and report cards, detention periods and childish ways to find your future staring you smack in the face. It's such an uncertain future—filled with nuclear fission and speeds faster than sound . . . big frightening hassles in the U. N. and trips into outer space.

But the most important thing is that this future we're talking about is YOU! You'll make it or break it, keep the peace or fight the wars, harness the atom for good, or use it to kill and maim. Through your college years, into your professions and the homes you will build . . . our best wishes go with you, Graduate . . . we're depending on you!

So nigh is grandeur to our dust,

So near is God to man,

When duty whispers low, "Thou must!"

The youth replies, "I can."
